

2022
Ada Farmers Market
Vendor Registration Form

Thank you for considering the Ada Farmers Market. Market applications are considered on the following criteria:

- Is the vendor returning from last year?
- Does the vendor offer a product not currently in the Market?
- If it is a product in the Market already, how comparatively unique is it?
- Is space available?
- Does the vendor have the appropriate license(s); local, state and/or federal?
- Does the vendor carry adequate insurance coverage?

Once an application has been received, we will review and contact you if there are additional questions. We do our best to respond within a week for final status.

- Baked goods and any other prepared foods must be from a licensed kitchen, except as may otherwise be allowed under the Cottage Food Law
- The sale of live animals or unprocessed animals will not be allowed
- Arts and crafts vendors will only be permitted if space is available and if the products are approved by the Market Master whose decision shall be binding and final

Vendor Performance

- Vendor recognizes that being a vendor in the Market is a privilege and will use their best efforts, if a seasonal vendor, to attend all Markets
- Taxes shall be the sole responsibility of the vendor
- Vendor pets are not allowed
- Vendors shall establish retail, not wholesale prices
- All vendors shall, and by these Rules, Regulations and Guidelines do, indemnify, hold harmless and defend the DDA and The Community Church, its agents, members and employees from and against any loss, liability, cause of action, or claim for personal injury, property damage, or loss of life or property arising from the actions of the vendor.
- All vendors are required to meet all applicable rules and regulations of Ada Township, Kent County, the State of Michigan, and Federal laws
- Each vendor must sweep/clean their stall before the end of each day and keep it neat during the period the Market is open. All vendor generated waste must be removed from the Market by the vendor.
- Vendor's vehicles shall be operated in a manner to not cause damage to the River Street lot which shall be the location of the Market.

Market Guidelines

- No pets or other animals shall be allowed in the Market except as shall otherwise be permitted by the Market Master
- All disputes will be settled by the Market Master
- The Market Master shall determine and establish such other rules and guidelines as may be necessary to assure the orderly conduct of the Market
- Any vendor violating these rules, regulations, and guidelines, including in particular, the Processes and Rules attached, shall be subject to such discipline as the Market Master shall determine and such determination shall be final. First and second warnings will be issued in writing by the Market Master. Any third violation in a season will result in automatic expulsion from the Market. If a vendor is expelled, such vendor shall forfeit the balance of his/her seasonal fee.

Tent Anchoring

All vendors who wish to erect canopies at the Market site during a normal period of market operations, including the set up and break down period, are required to have their canopies sufficiently and safely anchored to the ground from the time their canopy is put up to the time it is taken down. Any vendor who fails to properly anchor his or her canopy will not be allowed to sell on that market day, unless that vendor chooses to take down and stow their canopy and sell without it. Each canopy leg must have no less than 25 lbs (pounds) anchoring each leg.

In addition, weights should:

- not cause a tripping hazard
- be tethered with lines that are clearly visible
- have soft edges to avoid causing cuts and scrapes
- be securely attached
- be on the ground (NOT above people's heads)

Parking

Parking is not permitted in the customer parking areas by vendors, their families, or their help during hours of Market operation. Parking is available in the designated areas noted by the 'Vendor Parking' layout, which will be sent with the vendor booth assignment.
